

Inaugural of Five days (11-15th May, 2026) Training on “Climate-Smart Biocontrol Strategies for Management of Pests and Diseases in Coconut” at ICAR-NBAIR

Five days (11-15th May, 2026) Training on “Climate-Smart Biocontrol Strategies for Management of Pests and Diseases in Coconut” was inaugurated on 11th May, 2026 at ICAR-NBAIR, Bengaluru. Dr. T. Venkatesan, Director ICAR-NBAIR delivered inaugural address and interacted with participants. Hanumanthe Gowda, Chief Coconut Development Officer, Coconut Development Board, Kochi participated as chief guest and delivered inaugural address. Total of 30 trainees (18 offline and 12 online) across the coconut growing states participating in this training include development officer and field officers of CDB, Horticultural officers from Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and Gujarat.

